

CONSULTANT PROFILE – JIM ANDERSONEXPERIENCE AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE

Jim Anderson is the founder and President of Key-Connections. He was born and raised in Northwest Ohio and currently resides in Evergreen, Colorado. After 15 years of frontline experience leading and engaging teams in navigating tremendous change, he decided to venture out and create his own business.

Jim to focus his attention on creating and applying a set of unique processes and tools that support people and organizations in:

- Developing expanded self-awareness
- Improved leadership skills
- Creating more sustainable relationships
- Consistently achieving desired results.

TRAINING AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- Served as captain of the Ohio State Wrestling Team while earning a degree in Economics from The Ohio State University.
- Married to his best friend Kristan for nearly thirty years.
- Have been blessed with the stewardship of five amazing children (young adults).
- Fifteen years of management experience.
- Sixteen years of consulting and executive coaching experience.

CLIENTS

Association for Research & Enlightenment, Blue Cross & Blue Shield of New York, Boeing, Cadence Innovation, Citi Group, Coors Brewing Company, Exempla St Joseph Hospital, Exempla Lutheran Medical Center, Exempla Good Samaritan Medical Center Hamilton Farm Bureau, Hon Manufacturing Company, Metro State College of Denver, Ohio Edison, Pathfinder Communications, Pepsi-Cola, Root Learning, Inc., Savage and Associates, Solutia, Taco Bell, Textron Corporation, Truth Publishing, US Health Corporation, University of Notre Dame.