

CONSULTANT PROFILE – RUBEN PERCZEKEXPERIENCE AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE

Dr. Ruben Perczek brings his expertise in high performance, positive psychology and integral awareness to individuals, organizations, and corporations to have the challenge of achieving excellence in their field.

Born in Colombia and fluent in Spanish, his strong academic background and real-world pragmatic awareness of high achievement provides a strong foundation for supporting individuals and teams:

- In getting focused and leveraging strengths to achieve and sustain high performance.
- Committed to supporting individuals and teams expand their perspectives and tap into their highest potential.
- He works with Fortune 500 businesses and professional peak performers such as athletes and stage performers.

TRAINING AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- Achieved an exceptional level of mastery in tennis as a young athlete that afforded him an early and embodied understanding of "human potential."
- Ruben holds a doctorate in psychology from the University of Miami.
- A post-doctoral fellowship from Stanford University School of Medicine.
- Certified as an Integral Coach.
- Certified through the Values Centre and The Leadership Circle.
- Ruben Has authored numerous general public and peer-reviewed articles in recognized publications such as Tiempos del Mundo, Diners magazine, American Express Expressions magazine, and several academic peer-reviewed journals.
- A recognized speaker at national and international leadership conferences.

CLIENTS

Ricoh Latin America, Discovery Networks, Imagine Miami, Layetana Developments in Europe, The Shambhala Institute for Authentic Leadership, and the Office for Government Innovation in Mexico.