

CONSULTANT PROFILE – WAYNE CASKEYEXPERIENCE AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE

Wayne Caskey's broad business background (manufacturing, services and commercial finance) and varied business settings (venture capital-backed start-up, fast growth and liquidation) have enabled him to effectively coach and facilitate clients across twenty-five separate industries.

He has been coaching and facilitating CEOs, entrepreneurs and their immediate teams for the past eight years with:

- Mission of helping his clients increase the authenticity of their leadership.
- Facilitation topics that have included “A CEO for All Seasons” and “CEOs as Culture Change Agents.”

TRAINING AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- B.A. cum laude in economics from Harvard.
- Law degree from Yale.
- His coaching has been profiled in The International Journal of Coaching in Organizations and Macleans, the Canadian newsweekly, and he has written a monthly column for smartCEO magazine for five years.
- Three-time CEO with prior C-level operations and administration experience in two separate Fortune 500s.
- Wayne's broad business background (manufacturing, services and commercial finance) and varied business settings (venture capital-backed start-up, fast growth and liquidation) have enabled him to effectively coach and facilitate clients across twenty-five separate industries.

CLIENTS

Alliance Bernstein, GMAC Home Services, Sylvan Learning Centers, Titan Steel, Rollepaal USA, and North American, African and Middle Eastern subsidiaries of AP Moller-Maersk.